The Gilbert Law Group Senior Partner Jim Gilbert to Present
At Weekend With The Stars in New York City

“Elite Lawyers Gathering Brings Together Best Legal Talent in the United States”

Arvada, CO – The Gilbert Law Group Senior Partner, Jim Gilbert, will deliver a speech on December 10, 2011 at the American Association of Justice (AAJ) annual Weekend With The Stars conference in New York City. The theme for the 2011 gathering is ‘Evolution of Trial Advocacy.’

Mr. Gilbert will join Phoenix, Arizona attorney, David Wenner, in leading an innovative presentation on social science-based trial advocacy strategies entitled ‘Juror Realism – Science or Moral Trial Advocacy.’

The presentation will be based on Jim Gilbert’s decades of experience litigating consumer safety cases on behalf of clients injured or killed by defective automobiles and other unsafe products, as well as his recent qualitative research findings regarding juror attitudes.

“I am honored to join such an impressive gathering of attorneys to share my impressions on effectively communicating with jurors regarding complex facts and legal issues presented in contemporary litigation. It is a privilege to join some of the best advocates in the country to discuss these important issues,” stated Jim Gilbert.

Legendary trial attorneys Gerry Spence, Don Keenan, and Gregory Cusimano will join Jim Gilbert in presenting at the conference, which provides plaintiffs’ lawyers with new and innovative approaches to advocating on behalf of their clients.
